STRUM AND PICK PATTERNS

This chart contains the suggested strum and pick patterns that are referred to by number at the beginning of each song in this book. The symbols \( \text{n} \) and \( \text{v} \) in the strum patterns refer to down and up strokes, respectively. The letters in the pick patterns indicate which right-hand fingers plays which strings.

\[ p = \text{thumb} \]
\[ i = \text{index finger} \]
\[ m = \text{middle finger} \]
\[ a = \text{ring finger} \]

For example; Pick Pattern 2 is played: thumb - index - middle - ring

You can use the 3/4 Strum or Pick Patterns in songs written in compound meter (6/8, 9/8, 12/8, etc.). For example, you can accompany a song in 6/8 by playing the 3/4 pattern twice in each measure.

For 6/8, 9/8, and 12/8 Patterns, each pick pattern is played (4) times in each measure.

Additional Lyrics

2. Early in the springtime we’ll round up the dogies,
   Slap on their brands and bob off their tails;
   Round up our horses, load up the chuck wagon,
   Then throw those dogies upon the trail.

3. It’s whooping and yelling and driving the dogies,
   Oh, how I wish you would go on.
   It’s whooping and punching and go on, little dogies,
   For you know Wyoming will be your new home.

4. Some of the boys goes up the trails for pleasure,
   But that’s where they git it most awfully wrong;
   For you haven’t any idea the trouble they give us,
   When we go driving them dogies along.

5. When the night comes on and we hold them on the bed-ground,
   These little dogies that roll on so slow;
   Roll up the herd and cut out the strays,
   And roll the little dogies that never rolled before.

6. Your mother she was raised way down in Texas,
   Where the jimson weed and sandburs grow;
   Now we’ll fill you up on prickly pear and cholla,
   Till you are ready for the trail to Idaho.

7. Oh, you’ll be soup for Uncle Sam’s Injuns,
   “It’s beef, heap beef.” I hear them cry.
   Git along, git along, git along, little dogies,
   You’re going to be beef steers by and by.

Grandfather's Clock

1. My grand-father's clock was too large for the shelf so it stood ninety years on the floor. It was taller by half than the old man himself though it weighed not a penny-weight more. It was bought on the morn of the day that he was born and was always his treasure and

C G7 C G7 C Dm C G7 G7 C Dm C G7
2. In watching its pendulum swing to and fro,
   Many hours had he spent while a boy;
   And in childhood and manhood the clock seemed to know,
   And to share both his grief and his joy.
   For it struck twenty-four when he entered at the door,
   With a blooming and beautiful bride.

3. My grandfather said that of those he could hire,
   Not a servant so faithful he found;
   For it wasted no time, and had but one desire,
   At the close of each week to be wound.
   And it kept in its place, not a frown upon its face,
   And its hands never hung by its side.

4. It rang an alarm in the dead of the night,
   An alarm that for years had been dumb;
   And we knew that his spirit was pluming its flight,
   That his hour of departure had come.
   Still the clock kept the time, with a soft and muffled chime,
   As we silently stood by his side.

Extra Lyric:

2. Now the young man by name was Señor Boni Slang,
   Tall, big and handsome, as well made as Chang.
   Where’er he appeared, how the hall loudly rang,
   With ovations from all people there.

Bridge 2. He’d smile from the bar on the people below
   And one night he smiled on my love,
   She winked back at him, and she shouted “Bravo!”
   As he hung by his nose from above.

3. Her father and mother were both on my side
   And tried very hard to make her my bride.
   Her father, he sighed, and her mother, she cried
   To see her throw herself away.

Bridge 3. 'Twas all no avail, she went there ev’ry night
   And threw her bouquets on the stage,
   Which caused him to meet her — how he ran me down,
   To tell it would take a whole page.

4. One night I as usual went to her dear home,
   And found there her mother and father alone.
   I asked for my love, and soon ’twas made known,
   To my horror, that she’d run away.

Bridge 4. She packed up her boxes and eloped in the night,
   With him with the greatest of ease.
   From two stories high he had lowered her down
   To the ground on his flying trapeze.

5. Some months after that I went into a hall;
   To my surprise I found there on the wall
   A bill in red letters which did my heart gall,
   That she was appearing with him.

Bridge 5. He’d taught her gymnastics, and dressed her in tights
   To help him live at ease.
   He’d made her assume a masculine name,
   And now she goes on the trapeze.

Chorus 5. She floats through the air with the greatest of ease;
   You’d think her a man on the flying trapeze.
   She does all the work while he takes his ease,
   And that’s what’s become of my love.

   There’s a frog on the bump on the log
   In the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s a frog, there’s a frog.
   There’s a frog on the bump on the log
   In the hole in the bottom of the sea.

5. There’s a fly on the frog on the bump on the log
   In the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s a fly on the frog on the bump on the log
   In the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s a fly, there’s a fly.
   There’s a fly on the frog on the bump on the log
   In the hole in the bottom of the sea.

6. There’s a wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s a wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s a wing, there’s a wing.
   There’s a wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.

7. There’s a flea on the wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s a flea on the wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s a flea, there’s a flea.
   There’s a flea on the wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.

8. There’s an eye on the flea on the wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s an eye on the flea on the wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.
   There’s an eye, there’s an eye.
   There’s an eye on the flea on the wing on the fly on the frog
   On the bump on the log in the hole in the bottom of the sea.

Three Blind Mice

Three blind mice, three blind mice, see how they run, see how they run.
They all ran after the farmer's wife;
she cut off their tails with a carving knife.

Did you ever see such a sight in your life as three blind mice,
three blind mice?

Additional Lyrics
2. The three little kittens
   They found their mittens,
   And they began to cry,
   Oh! Mother dear, see here, see here,
   Our mittens we have found.
   What, found your mittens, you darling kittens,
   Then you shall have some pie.

3. The three little kittens
   Put on their mittens,
   And soon ate up the pie,
   Oh! Mother dear, we greatly fear,
   Our mittens we have soil’d.
   What, soil’d your mittens, you naughty kittens,
   Then they began to cry.

Chorus

F G C F C

2. And there we see a thousand men
As rich as Squire David.
And what they wasted ev’ry day
I wish it could be saved.

3. And there was Captain Washington
Upon a slapping stallion
A-giving orders to his men,
I guess there was a million.

4. And then the feathers on his hat,
They looked so very fine, ah!
I wanted peskily to get
To give to my Jemima.

5. And there I see a swamping gun,
Large as a log of maple,
Upon a mighty little cart,
A load for father’s cattle.

6. And ev’ry time they fired it off,
It took a horn of powder,
It made a noise like father’s gun,
Only a nation louder.

7. An’ there I see a little keg,
Its head all made of leather.
They knocked upon it with little sticks
To call the folks together.

8. And Cap’n Davis had a gun,
He kind o’clapt his hand on’t
And stuck a crooked stabbing-iron
Upon the little end on’t.

9. The troopers, too, would gallop up
And fire right in our faces.
It scared me almost half to death
To see them run such races.

10. It scared me so I hocked it off
Nor stopped, as I remember,
Nor turned about till I got home,
Locked up in mother’s chamber.
